

Licensed Civil Engineering Job Description

Summary

Due to our company's recent growth, Townsend Engineering has an exciting position for a full-time Licensed Civil Engineer, to join our close knit team. Our ideal candidate would be a self-motivated individual with design experience who enjoys working on various projects, in a fast pace work environment all maintaining the highest level of client service. The right person would have experience with civil infrastructure projects, preparation plans, and specifications for bidding.

Primary Responsibilities and Duties:

- Project planning and design
- Preparation project plans and specifications
- Interaction with clients
- Adapting designs to changing circumstances, while maintaining schedules and budgets
- Preparation of written reports and project documents
- Preparing permit applications and submittals

Required Experience and Qualifications:

- Bachelor Degree in Civil Engineering
- Proficient in AutoCAD and Civil 3D design software
- Strong knowledge of Windows operating system and Microsoft Office
- Iowa and Illinois PE preferred
- Experience with site design, grading plans and storm water detention design
- Strong verbal, written, and communications skills with the ability to clearly communicate technical subject matter to a wide range of audiences
- Team-oriented to keep productive, efficient and on-task
- Multitasker who can work independently
- Desire and ability to learn new skills and assume new responsibilities
- Valid driver's license and a good driving record

Position Type:

Full-Time/Regular

Townsend Engineering is an equal opportunity employer and values diversity in its workplace. All qualified candidates are encourage to apply including minorities, women, veterans and individuals with disabilities.

Job Salary:

Salary is based upon education and experience.

Job Location:

Davenport, Iowa, United States